Los amigos de Fonseca inicialmente indicaron que había desaparecido el 20 de septiembre, según los partes de la policía. Fonseca, de 18 años, cubría la fuente policíaca para el diario El Mañanero . Autoridades federales señalaron que la policía local en la región está controlada por los grupos del crimen organizado, según informes de prensa. Numerosos periodistas adaptan sus reportajes con tal de no provocar el enojo de los líderes de los grupos criminales o sus aliados políticos, reporteros indicaron al CPJ. “Instamos a las autoridades mexicanas a localizar a Manuel Gabriel Fonseca Hernández y a garantizar su seguridad”, afirmó Carlos Lauría, coordinador senior del programa de las Américas del CPJ. “Las autoridades mexicanas deben ofrecer garantías para que los periodistas puedan cumplir con su labor informativa sin temor a represalias”. Los periodistas afirmaron que no han podido ubicar a Fonseca en su teléfono celular, según informó la prensa local. Otra periodista indicó a la policía que había recibido un mensaje de texto indescifrable del número de Fonseca, pero no pudo ubicarlo cuando intentó llamarlo. Varias fuentes señalaron al CPJ que la desaparición de Fonseca está profundizando el temor en un estado donde cuatro periodistas han sido asesinados este año. Muchos reporteros han abandonado el estado o permanecen escondidos, según muestra la investigación del CPJ. La violencia del narcotráfico ha convertido a México en uno de los países más peligrosos para la prensa, según una investigación del CPJ .
